Analytic Framework: School-Based Health Centers to Promote Health Equity

School-Based Health Centers

- Federal, state, local policies

Health education:
- Nutrition
- Sexual behavior
- Substance abuse
- Physical activity
- Mental health

Patient comfort/satisfaction

Increased use of recommended preventive services

Increased access to services (medical, mental health, dental, social)

Increased/earlier diagnosis

Reduced risk behavior

Reduced teen births

Improved school achievement

Increased/earlier treatment:
- Infectious diseases
- Chronic diseases
- Dental health
- Mental health

Increased proportion with medical home

Reduced health care misuse

Reduced morbidity and injury

Key Effect Modifier
- Available community health care
- Parental engagement
- School-based/linked Record Sharing

Decreased fragmentation of care

Reduced transportation time, cost
Reduced parental health-care time
Decreased fragmentation of care

Improved health of low-income and minority students

Health Equity